
Uninterruptible Power Supply in Lesotho

What is the electricity supply industry in Lesotho?

The electricity supply industry in Lesotho is dominated by two state owned entities, namely the Lesotho Electricity Company (LEC), which is the monopoly transmitter, distributor and supplier of electricity, and the Lesotho Highlands Development Authority (LHDA), which is the main generator of electricity through its Muela Hydro Power Station.

Does Lesotho have electricity?

In 2018, the government and the Lesotho Electricity Company (LEC) signed a Power Provision Agreement with Electricidade de Mozambique to provide Lesotho with up to 30 MW of power, which has managed to secure LEC's electricity supply and sustained the quality of electricity service, LEWA reported.

Does Lesotho have a good energy sector?

Lesotho's energy sector is one of the most infant and under-developed, with the country's efforts towards self-sufficiency in electricity generation well on course and in line with the national development strategy goals.

What is the main source of power in Lesotho?

Lesotho's main source of power generation is the 72MW Muela hydropower plant. There is also a small 281kW solar photovoltaic (PV) installation at the Moshoeshoe I International Airport and several small hydropower plants in the country totalling around 3 MW capacity.
